Adam,
I just left you a VM. They let us off the plane to stretch our legs so I tried to call you. Our plane is scheduled to leave in an hour. My guess is that I have another 20 minutes or so before they lock it down. If by chance you can call before then, feel free. Otherwise we can talk tomorrow. Thx

Gentlemen,

As it turns out, Eric is sitting on the plane waiting to take off and his flight has been significantly delayed. He will not be able to make a call at 4:30pm PST. Would you please let us know your availability for a call tomorrow? In addition, Eric's contact information is found below. Please provide each of your contact information so we may update our contact list.

Thank you.

Can we talk at 430 pm pacific/630 central time today? I should be available at that time assuming my flights are reasonable on time today. My assistant will circulate a dial in number.

Eric - I can make myself available this afternoon or tomorrow. We would expect to enter into an agreement with Stroz Friedberg which would provide that (i) only information relevant to former employer matters would be provided to Unicorn and (ii) no attorney-client communications would be provided to Unicorn.

Good morning. I am reaching out so that we can initiate contact with Stroz Friedberg in furtherance of the diligence process related to Newco. Can you advise of your availability for a call today or tomorrow? Today, I am traveling back to California from East Coast meetings and have limited availability, but I definitely can be available if that works for everyone. At least an initial call today would be ideal. Otherwise, I am back in the office tomorrow.

Thanks,
Eric
